During the year some necessary repairs have been made, 31 new shelves added to the book stacks, materially increasing their capacity ; quite a large number of worn out books have been replaced with new, under the same titles, and a present of several volumes of juvenile books was received from Mrs. Sawyer and several books of non-fiction from Miss Mabel Aldrich.

Respectfully submitted,

M. F. LIBBEY, TREASURER.

Whitefield Police Court.

To the Town of Whitefield.

An examination of the sixteen criminal cases brought before the Court since my last report and up to June 30, 1913, when this court was abolished by Act of the Legislature approved May 21, 1913, discloses the following details. Two cases were heard before Special Justice Frank B. Lewis when both the Associate Justice and myself were absent from Town.

During the more than eighteen years that this Court has been in existence it has disposed of 671 criminal cases and has shown a net profit to the Town of $1,272.15. In 1908, 1909, 1911 and 1913 the Town contributed small amounts towards the maintenance of the Court but during the other fourteen years the Court has paid something each year to the Town, running as high as $409.71 in 1902 under Judge Wright. Since the enactment of the Local Option law of 1903 there has been thirty two cases of violation of liquor laws, while in the year 1902 twenty two cases were disposed of. This accounts in a large measure for the decrease of revenue since then.

For the many kind suggestions and courtesies extended to me during eleven years service as the Judge of this Court, I express my appreciation. Happily can I say that I was not recalled by a vote of the citizens of Whitefield.
